A Day's Happening.

A lady was tossing restlessly in her bed and could not fall asleep. She had arranged to get her husband a Christmas gift of a gold watch. She had in fact almost selected one like a dear friend of hers had. She was troubled because she had not the money saved and Christmas was so near. Suddenly her beautiful eyes filled with hope; she remembered her friend told her she got her watch from the Aaronson Credit Centre, that famous instalment house at 62 Bowery and 157 Canal street.
